

American Revolution Study Guide
TCI Lesson 13 - Test Date: Tuesday, March 5th

Part 1: Vocabulary

Enlist: to agree to serve in an army or a navy

Mercenary: a soldier hired to fight for a foreign army

Strategy: an overall plan for winning a war, such as how and where to use an army or navy

Tactic: a planned action, such as a way of moving or using troops, aimed at reaching a certain goal

Treaty: a formal agreement between two or more nations

Turning Point: an event that leads to a dramatic change

Revolution: the overthrow of one government and its replacement with another

Volunteer: a person who performs a service for free

Part 2: Multiple Choice - Things to Know:

- Who made up the Continental Army (what types of soldiers)?
- Why did thousands of American Indians fight for Great Britain?
- What made the war difficult for the British?
- Who led the Continental Army?
- Why were the Battles of Saratoga important?
- What war tactics did the Continental Army use?
- What were the roles of men and women in the war?
- The Treaty of Paris (1783)

Part 3: Strengths and Weaknesses

- Be able to explain three strengths and two weaknesses of both the British and Continental Armies.

Part 4: Short Answer

- George Washington's leadership qualities (be able to provide examples/evidence to support your answer)
- What made colonists successful during the war?