

French and Indian War Assessment Review Sheet

Test Date: _____

- Know the following vocabulary terms:
 - Great Britain, France, and the Native Americans fought in the French and Indian War (Great Britain vs. France; Native Americans fought on both sides)
 - colony - a community ruled by another country, not by its own people (ex. the 13 colonies were ruled by Great Britain)
 - colonist - a person who settles, or lives, in a colony
 - tension - a stressful political relationship (ex. colonists felt anger towards Great Britain)
 - proclamation - an official public announcement
- Using the maps below, be able to:
 - Explain which European superpower had the best geographic claim in North America in 1763 AND why. (see Lesson #2 WOW and WIO)
 - Explain which superpower lost the most land between 1750 and 1763 AND why. (see Lesson #2 WOW and WIO)

- The British, French, and Native Americans all wanted something leading up to the French and Indian War. Know what each one wanted and what strategy they used to try to get it. (see Lesson #3-4 WOW and WIO)
 - Native Americans
 - Want: to keep their land, lifestyle, and control of their future
 - Strategy: trade with the Europeans, but prevent settlement
 - French
 - Want: to control the Native American fur trade on all the land they claimed
 - Strategy: keep control over the Ohio River Valley
 - British
 - Want: settle the land west of the Allegheny Mountains for farming
 - Strategy: gain control over the Ohio River Valley

- Explain why the French and Indian War was fought. (see Lesson #3-4 WOW and WIO)
 - Great Britain and France both claimed the Ohio River Valley and could not agree about which country should control it, so a war began. The British ultimately won the land in the Ohio River Valley.

- Explain how the Proclamation of 1763 helped the American Indians. (see Lesson #6 WOW and WIO)
 - The Proclamation of 1763 helped the American Indians because it stated that American Indians could have much of the land west of the Appalachian Mountains as they wanted and that settlers could not move to these areas.

- Explain how the colonists felt about the Proclamation of 1763 AND why they felt that way. (see Lesson #5 and 6 WOW and WIO)
 - The colonists disliked this law because they did not like the way in which Great Britain was trying to control the colonies (ex. telling them they could not move west). Many colonists simply ignored the law and moved west anyway.
